Billing Information

Verizon Wireless' Surcharges includes charges to recover or help defray costs of taxes and of governmental charges and fees imposed on us, including a Regulatory Charge (which helps defray costs of various regulatory mandates, including government number administration and license fees) and a Federal Universal Service Charge (and, if applicable, a State Universal Service Charge) to recover costs imposed on us by the government to support universal service, and may include other charges also related to our governmental costs. It also includes an Administrative Charge, which helps defray certain costs we incur, currently including (i) charges we, or our agents, pay local telephone companies for delivering long distance calls from our customers to their customers, (ii) fees and assessments on network facilities and services, and (iii) certain costs and charges associated with proceedings related to new cell site construction. Please note that these are Verizon Wireless Charges, not taxes that we are required to collect from you. These charges, and what's included, are subject to change from time to time.

Verizon Wireless' Other Charges and Credits includes charges for products and services, and credits owing.

Taxes, Governmental Surcharges and Fees includes sales, excise and other taxes and governmental surcharges and fees that we are required by law to bill to customers. These taxes, surcharges and fees may change from time to time without notice.

Inquiries/Requests - Most customer payments are processed using an automated system. This means that inquiries or requests you include with or on your payment won't reach us. Please send your correspondence to the address on page 1 (see Mail Letters) or call our Customer Service Department at 1(800) 922-0204 or *611 from your wireless phone. If you're trying to resolve a dispute by sending us payment of less than the full amount we've billed you, please note that your Customer Agreement requires you to pay in full despite any disputes, and informs you that we won't honor limiting notations you make on or with a payment.
