Further Details for Parents & campers

A letter will be sent to each camper nearer the time of camp giving advice about clothes and equipment.

CCIW will not be responsible for loss of personal property of campers.

Campers sent home for bad behaviour will not be entitled to a refund.

Code of Conduct

We want everyone to enjoy camp as much as possible and in every way, and these few rules will help to ensure this, provided they are followed.

Remember that the rules are for your safety and enjoyment and if you book to come on camp you agree to abide by this code of conduct.

1. It is expected that everyone will try to join in everything, and maintain acceptable standards of behaviour.
2. You will be expected to follow the instructions of the leaders and officers at all times, especially during adventure activities. Failure to follow instructions promptly could be dangerous to you and to others.
3. Under no circumstances are you to go into the tents of the opposite sex. Boys found in girls' tents or vice-versa will be sent home.
4. Damage or theft of CCIW or other camper's property will not be tolerated.
5. No alcohol, smoking, drugs etc.
6. Personal property. No knives other than those used for eating are permitted on camp. No personal audio/computer equipment (TV, CD, cassette, radio, computer games) is permitted on site.
7. Mobile phones are permitted but must be switched off during meetings and meals.
